A Message from the Ministry of Stewardship

Exodus 20: 1-21

Then God spoke all these words: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments. You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name. Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die." Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin." Then the people stood at a distance, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.

1 Peter 4:10

As this passage makes clear, stewardship is first of all stewardship of God's grace. Thus, stewardship is central to our mission as a church, as we reach out in hope and joy to a world in great need.

Our theme for this year's season of stewardship is Reclaiming the Mission. We invite you to join us in both celebrating the successes and responding to the challenges of the last two years. The household of God has been well served, and we rejoice in gratitude for the generous response to building campaign.

Yet as many of you know, last year's lean budget required cuts in mission initiatives and precluded pay raises for our talented and dedicated staff. Overall, FHC had to operate with about 10% less during 2011 than had been the case in recent prior years. We invite you to join the members of the Stewardship of Ministry in reflecting on the abundance of grace God has bestowed upon us, and in prayerfully considering and making a 10% increase in your pledge. And, if you've yet to make a pledge, please consider doing so this year.

Pledges will be dedicated on November 20. We greatly appreciate hearing from you by then.

Yours faithfully,

The Ministry of Stewardship
