

Forest Hill Church

The Tower

December 2013

Dear Friends,

From the Pastor

I am writing you (on November 13) from Lake Logan, NC, nestled in the hills of western Carolina near Asheville, where along with 30 other pastors from across the denomination I am halfway through a clergy conference. Our task is to step back, get away, and take a look at our lives, our vocations and our future. Some of it is very prayerful. Some of it is very playful and expressive. Last night we got artistic. I tried to describe my walk in the woods with paint, tissue paper and clay. (I will keep my day job!) Some of the work is very practical: 403b(9), pensions, investments and the like. I am in a small group with three other pastors - all male in their 50's. We have had a grand time sharing experiences, best practices, hopes and dreams.

One of the most affirming, revealing and true re-discoveries is how blest I am to be in ministry with you at Forest Hill Church. Truly FHC is an amazing congregation. You are generous, faithful, supportive, forgiving, playful and open. You have no idea how rare this is. Of course there are other dynamic churches in our denomination. I have met many talented and devout pastors. But they are all amazed when I start bragging about you. Of course, FHC is not perfect. But that is what makes all good. Perfection is not the goal or even the expectation. We seek to be in formation, always open to the Spirit of God to lead us in the way of justice and joy!

THANK YOU!

As I enter the season of Advent, I am overwhelmed with thanks. It is as if I have already opened all the important Christmas presents and Christmas isn't even here.

God bless you all!

Senior Pastor, Head of Staff

December Calendar	cover

Dear friends,

This is a piece from a favorite and familiar author, Frederick Buechner. It felt just right for bringing an end to 2013, and committing ourselves to being more alive in 2014. Peace be with you during this Holy season. May the One who was the Incarnation of God, Jesus, companion you as you "come alive through this day today of your life."

Blessings,

Rev. Clover Reuter Beal
Associate Pastor
Director of Lay Leadership

Be Alive

YOU ARE SEEING everything for the last time, and everything you see is gilded with goodbyes. The child's hand like a starfish on the pillow, your hand on the doorknob. Caught between screen and window, a wasp unfolds one wing. With a sick smile, guilt-ridden, the old dachshund lurches off the forbidden couch when you come through the door, his nose dry with sleep, and makes for the pillow by the hot-air register. It is the room where for years Christmases have happened, snow falling so thick by the window that sometimes it has started to snow in the room, brightness falling on tables, books, chairs, the gaudy tree in the corner, a family sitting there snowmen, snowbound, snowblind to the crazy passing of what they think will never pass. And today now everything will pass because it is the last day. For the last time you are seeing this rain fall and in your mind that snow, this child asleep, this cat. For the last time you are hearing this house come alive because you who are part of its life have come alive. All the unkept promises if they are ever to be kept have to be kept today. All the unspoken words if you do not speak them today will never be spoken. The people, the ones you love and the ones who bore you to death, all the life you have in you to live with them, if you do not live it with them today will never be lived.

It is the first day because it has never been before and the last day because it will never be again. Be alive if you can all through this day today of your life. What's to be done? What's to be done?

Follow your feet. Put on the coffee. Start the orange juice, the bacon, the toast. Then go wake up your children and your wife. Think about the work of your hands, the book that of all conceivable things you have chosen to add to the world's pain. Live in the needs of the day.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Our children continue to be engaged in all of our Christian Education programs. The lessons, workshops, discussions and projects can all be written with the best intentions, but the teachers are the true reason these programs grow and are meaningful. Our Christian Education leaders give their time and gifts of energy and faith to help our children and youth grow into their faith. Thank you to all of our wonderful volunteers who have taught, led, shepherded and cared during November.

- In our nursery, thank you to Sarah Tan, Elaine Turley, Jill Roberts and Jeanette Nemcek.
- In our Children in Worship class, thank you to Lara Troyer & Jeff Dyck.
- In our Pathways to the Promise Land, thank you to Jenny Himmelman, Sharon Shumaker, Jennifer Blakeney, Joanne Shaner, Sarah & Matt Winters and Christina Hidek.

Children in Worship Older four year olds and kindergarten

Lara Troyer & Jeff Dyck will continue to lead this class in December. The children in this age group are asked to respond to the stories they've heard through "I Wonder" questions. There is also a craft response to help them better understand the story. This month the children will hear stories about Advent.

Pathways to the Promise Land Grades 1-5

The next rotation theme centers on Gospel Comparisons that tell the Christmas story. The Gospel writers selected particular stories about Jesus' life as they highlighted aspects of the incarnation. The children will explore and respond to this focus through art, storytelling and a movie.

Confirmation

Please keep our Confirmands and Covenant Partners in your thoughts and prayers as they continue their focus of Faith Journeys in their classes. So far the classes has begun to discern the reasons to be part of the class, learned what Presbyterian creeds are and explored how the Bible is put together.

Ezekiel

The children in the Pathways to the Promise Land program explored the story of Ezekiel in November. In one of the workshops the children participated in an Ezekiel board game. It is amazing what they know. I'd like to share some of the questions. Take a moment or two and see how well you can answer these questions.

1. Who is Ezekiel?
2. Name one of Ezekiel's visions
3. Why did God let the people of Israel be conquered by the Babylonians?
4. Why did God ask Ezekiel to eat the scroll?
5. Read Ezekiel 1:13-14 What did Ezekiel see?
6. Read Ezekiel 3:27 What did God say?
7. Read Ezekiel 16:59-63 What does God remember?
8. Read Ezekiel 37:1-6 What will the bones do?

The answers can be found on page 12.

Music

The four Sundays of Advent, the time we prepare ourselves for the coming of the Christ Child, begin December 1. Due to the commercial hubbub of this time in the secular world, we may sometimes wish to skip Advent all together and join our favorite radio programs by singing Christmas carols early in December. But if one honors faithfully the more meditative and preparation-minded spirit of the four Advent weeks, one may find that the actual Christmas holidays (all twelve days!) are all the more meaningful. As the pastors choose the hymns and carols during Advent, watch the progression as we gradually move, with anticipation, toward the celebration of the birth of Christ. O Come, O Come Emmanuel!

Our Festival of Lessons and Carols will take place this year on Sunday, December 15 during 11:00 am worship. The Chancel, Sine Nomine and Descant Choirs are all rehearsing for this beautiful and celebrative service. Consider inviting your non-Forest Hill friends to join you this day.

On December 24, Christmas Eve, there will be a 5:00 pm Family Service (with the Descant Choir and young instrumentalists) and the 11:00 pm Candlelight Service (with the Chancel and Sine Nomine Choirs). A fifteen-minute musical prelude will precede the 11:00 pm service.

A hearty welcome to two new Chancel Choir members: Lauren Miller, soprano, and Joey Nicoletti, tenor. We are fortunate to have these two talented and dedicated singers with us.

Many thanks for all the appreciative comments I've heard about the new hymnal. This will be a year of celebrating the musical gifts within the pages of this book, and I look forward to singing something old, something new, and something different as we embrace this new volume.

I wish you all a blessed Advent and Christmas season.

Soli Deo Gloria!

FHC Youth Report

The FHC Youth are a phenomenal bunch! We've been having a lot of fun and learning a lot this year! In Sunday School, the High School youth have been learning about the big-picture story of the Bible through a curriculum called "Echo the Story," while the Middle School Youth have been reading Genesis and now Exodus with the help of a book called "Manna and Mercy." We've gone on a haunted hayride, had brunch together, played with the basketball arcade game in my office, and eaten a lot of baked goods. December promises to be just as awesome! Here are a few of the events coming up.

Parents and Youth: Watch your emails for more announcements and specifics!

December 6 (Friday Evening)

Youth will provide activities and games for Family Promise children and families! Come and serve with your friends.

December 8 (Sunday Morning)

COMBINED Middle and High School Youth Group Pancake Breakfast and Advent Activities

December 13 (Friday-Saturday)

ALL YOUTH Advent Lock-In. Come learn about Advent Spiritual Practices and Traditions, and play lots of games, make cool stuff, eat a LOT and stay up all night!

Watch for more dates and activities to be announced soon.

Adult Education in December

December 1, 8, 15

“Advent Through the Eyes of Those Who Waited”

First, the prophets in the book of Isaiah present us with the idea of waiting and preparing for the Messiah – our work for Advent. Mary, the mother of Jesus, and Elizabeth, her cousin, are the main subjects of session two. Lastly, we meet John the Baptist who announces the coming of the Messiah. The study will focus on our own journeys toward hope, preparation, courage and receiving blessings.

Facilitators: Kermit Lind, John Lentz and Clover Beal

December 22: Haiti

The Adult Education hour at 9:30 am on December 22 will be the time for a report on the recent FHC mission trip to Haiti. Members of the team who made the journey will talk about their experience -- why they went, how they prepared, what they saw, what they did and how it affected their lives. This multi-media session, including photos, video, and Haitian food, can be a good preparation for more in-depth discussions about charity and justice issues in places hit by destructive forces of nature.

Four Sundays in Advent: Reading the Prophet Isaiah

Kermit Lind will lead a special 4-week series in December: Studying Isaiah’s Vision of God’s Indictments, Judgment, Redemption and Hope, Then and Now. The class will meet from 12:20 – 1:45 pm on Sundays, December 1, 8, 15 and 22 in South Hall. Please bring a bag lunch.

This is a repeat of the series conducted last summer.

To register, contact Kermit Lind (kermitlind@gmail.com) or Pastor Clover Beal (pastorbeal@fhcpresb.org).

In the January TOWER (which you will receive before Christmas), brief biographies of these nominees will be printed. You, the congregation, will elect them to their new positions at the Annual Meeting on January 26, 2014.

Join us in ending injustices in our region.
YOU ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE GREATER CLEVELAND
CONGREGATIONS (GCC)

GCC is a non-partisan coalition of faith communities and partner organizations in Cuyahoga County working together to build power for social justice.

GCC is comprised of 40 religious congregations,
Christian and Jewish as well as other faith traditions,
in the city and suburbs.

We at Forest Hill Church have a strong and vibrant commitment to mission and justice with many service projects in the community, particularly concerning racism, homelessness, hunger, education, and the environment. We have branched out into health, with the health fair this year, and getting new understanding of criminal justice concerns as well as gun control. GCC has been active over the last 2 plus years in these and related areas, making significant inroads in Cleveland Municipal Schools (education team) and Medicaid expansion(health team), as well as addressing both gun control and racism in the criminal justice system (criminal justice team). Thus, when John and Deanne introduced the idea of FHC joining GCC, five of us volunteered to be the first on the “Core Team”: Diana Woodbridge, Sharon Shumaker, Dick Obermanns, Mark Chupp, and Jennifer Blakeney. We have since added several more core team members, including Gretchen Reynolds and Ed Gernerchak, since Session approved our membership in GCC.

FHC, in joining Greater Cleveland Congregations, has an added opportunity to make a difference in the lives of those we are called to help by striving to change the structures that maintain injustice. We gain power and effectiveness when we work with our brothers and sisters in faith combined with the experience of trained staff at GCC.

The FHC Core Team is the liaison between the congregation and GCC, allowing us to engage in the activities of GCC and have our input into the organization. We are looking to expand the Core Team and invite anyone who wishes to join us. You have the opportunity to be involved at a variety of levels: become a member of one of the three issue teams (see italics above) or simply participate in the various actions and gatherings to support the work. Many of you can expect to hear from us as we seek to discover, through individual conversations, where our collective hopes and dreams and deepest convictions rest.

Contact any of the Core Team members listed above for more information or to express your interest in attending activities or joining the Core Team.

On December 12, there will be an important and exhilarating meeting/assembly to learn of the successes and to participate in the next steps of GCC. These are very well organized and energizing and we hope FHC will attend in large numbers to show our support. More information will follow. Stay tuned!

This month we bid farewell to Fran Thomas, who has been a faithful Thursday presence in the office since before I began working here in 1997. Fran joined FHC in 1994 and has been helpful ever since in many capacities, including stapling the bulletins before the latest copier arrived 2 years ago (how many of you know that those bulletins were assembled and stapled by volunteers?) and keeping the sanctuary tidy and well-supplied! Now she is retiring from this job, and I want to say a big THANK YOU to her for many years and many jobs well done.

Fortunately Fran is only leaving the office, not FHC, so you will still see her around!

Seeking Musical Instruments

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Cleveland is looking for musical instruments that may be lurking in your closets, sad and unused by you or your children. We have a very active music program conducted by our Artistic Director, Matt Bott and a group of volunteers.

We have more children who are interested in following their musical passion than we have available instruments to play. Can you help?

The advantage for those of you at FHC is that I will gladly accept the instruments and take them to the club. If you have the large instruments we can arrange for pick-up!

We are also able to make repairs to instruments. All donations will be acknowledged for tax purposes. Don't own an instrument, but know someone who does? – please ask if they would like to donate!

We are currently in need of: trumpets, trombones, tubas, flutes, clarinets, saxophones, guitars, basses, drums, and keyboards.

Please contact me, and thank you.
