Renewing Our Relationship with God

Prayer of Confession

Elder Ron Register

Holy God, have mercy on us. In your love and grace, save us from troubled times. Rescue us when suffering comes, and comfort us when grief overwhelms us. When we wander confused, guide us back to your truth. When we waiver out of fear or weakness, strengthen our resolve and help us put our hope and trust in you. When we are abandoned and alone, gather us in the arms of your love, and remind us that we are your children and that you are our Savior. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

Scripture Lessons

Job 1: 1; 2: 1-10

There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason." Then Satan answered the LORD, "Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives. But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face." The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life."

So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes. Then his wife said to him, "Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die." But he said to her, "You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Mark 10: 2-16

Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her." But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

After the readings

Leader: Hear what the Holy Spirit is telling God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Unexpected Guest Dinner Party Saturday, October 27, 2018, 6:30 pm

Make plans to be a guest or a host at this year's Unexpected Guest event. Guests show up and bring their beverage of choice. Hosts plan and present a meal for 8 to 10 people. No one knows their dinner partners until they arrive!

Children are welcome this year, as we'll have some dinner groups planned around families with children of similar ages. No need to get a babysitter – bring the whole family!

To sign up for this year's party, use the link in the weekly email or contact Cindy Fink (216-571-7060). If you would like to host, contact Cindy by phone or email (finkcindy@gmail.com)

The Peace and Global Witness offering will be collected today.

Paul's prayer in 2 Thessalonians (3:16) for God to grant us "peace at all times, in all ways" can often feel more like a wish than a plan in our world. Each year, the Presbyterian Church offers the opportunity to contribute to the Peace and Global Witness Offering, which funds global initiatives for resolving conflict, rebuilding after war, and fighting against violations of human rights.

Twenty-five percent of this offering stays with Forest Hill Church; we decide how to use it toward this mission of peace. This year, we will send our support to AMOS Health and Hope, a Christian non-profit organization that brings health care to the most vulnerable populations of Nicaragua. Christy Lafferty, a staff member of AMOS and a daughter of the congregation, will speak on October 14 about the work of AMOS Health and Hope and about the effects of the crisis in Nicaragua.

Vigils at the ICE offices: There will be vigils at the ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) headquarters (925 Keynote Drive, Brooklyn Hts) every Thursday from 4:00 - 4:45 pm.

This is an ongoing effort to have a regular presence at ICE to protest their inhumane and cruel treatment of immigrants. It is sponsored by an Immigration Coalition which includes Heights Friends of HOLA (HFOH), InterReligious Task Force (IRTF), Forest Hill Church, Pilgrim Church, La Sagrada Familia, Democratic Socialists of America, and Jobs with Justice.

Please make every effort to join us. You're welcome to bring your signs and friends. Interested in carpooling? Please contact Sharon Shumaker (216-659-4114 or sms2924@gmail.com).

Forest Hill's Greater Cleveland Congregations core team invites you to explore how passion can move to action on October 21, after worship.

- Come share your passions and envision how you might "create a new thing."
- Hear how GCC has done social justice work with highlights of GCC successes.
- Celebrate the GCC Cleveland Hts Housing Team's local action accomplishments.
- Light lunch will be provided.
