Forest Hill Church: diverse, inclusive, welcoming

Service of Worship
March 10, 2019 at 11:00 am

Welcome! Thank you for joining us today for worship.
Please join us in wearing a name tag so that we might greet you.
Our ushers have large print editions of the bulletin and directions to our nursery for babies and young children.

Prayer of Preparation

“The Word is near you, on your lips and in your heart’ (that is the word of faith that we proclaim.”

Renewing Our Relationship with God

Prayer of Confession

Our confession, O God, is that we believe. We believe in the power and presence of your goodness made flesh. In the face of big evils and little falsehoods, may your Word make its way from our hearts to our lips. May we confess you, as Jesus did in the wilderness. Fill us with your Holy Spirit, we pray.

“It's a Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood” —Fred Rogers

It's a beautiful day in this neighborhood, a beautiful day for a neighbor.
Would you be mine? Could you be mine?
It's a neighborly day in this beauty wood, a neighborly day for a beauty,
Would you be mine? Could you be mine?
I have always wanted to have a neighbor just like you!
I've always wanted to live in a neighborhood with you.
So, let's make the most of this beautiful day; since we're together we might as well say,
Would you be mine? Could you be mine? Won't you be my neighbor.
Won't you please, won't you please? Please won't you be my neighbor?

Scripture Lessons

Lily Lenington

Psalm 91 (Assurance of God's Protection)

You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, will say to the LORD, ‘My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust.’ Because you have made the LORD your refuge, the Most High your dwelling-place, no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands, they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot. Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name. When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honour them. With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.

Romans 10:8b

But what does it say? 'The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim)

Luke 4:1-13 (The Temptation of Jesus)

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone."' Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."' Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, "He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."' Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

After the reading's

Leader: Hear what the Holy Spirit is telling God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

"Anatomy of Temptation"

Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

LOOKING AHEAD

Engaging the Spiritual Practices: Join us on March 17, 24, 31, and April 14 at 9:30 a.m., in the Chapel for a Lenten Study/practicum, Engaging the Spiritual Practices. Pastor Goines will teach basic principles of spiritual disciplines, introduce various weekly practices, and lead participants in communal practices to encourage the development of a rule of life for deepening faith. Please notify the office (office@fhcpresb.org) if you plan to attend.

The (aging) Forest Hill softball team is looking for the next generation of players to join the team. Starting the last week in April through the last weekend of July, the softball team plays other churches on Sunday afternoons at 3:30 across the street at Forest Hill Park. We are looking for a handful or more of new players to join the team. Members, visitors, friends, or family 16 and over should contact Jason Hidek at jason.hidek@att.net or by phone 440-264-3296 if you are interested.

Are you interested in joining Forest Hill Church? We are excited about our Exploring New Membership classes are being held on 3/17, 3/24, and 3/31 from 12:30-2:00 pm. Please reach out to the FHC office if you are interested and we will connect you with the Church Growth Team!

Iris Circle and Women of Forest Hill Church will enjoy a Pot Luck in Bodwell Hall, on March 19 at noon. Our guest speaker will be Humera Khan, from the Cleveland Chapter of the Council on American Islamic Relations, who will speak about being Muslim. She will help us plan a trip to the Islamic Center on Chardon Rd on April 5. Bring your favorite dish and see you there! If you have any questions please contact Joyce Pope (teach1pope@gmail.com) or Cathy Ghiandoni (ghiandoni.c@gmail.com).

Why do we Fast? “[Lent is]... a period of time in which Christians are meant to give up some comfort or adopt some spiritual practice that leads to self-examination, repentance from sin, and, ultimately, renewal of the soul, all in anticipation of greater dedication to serving others and God in the coming year.” As persons of privilege, how can we use fasting to draw closer to God while living into the call of 1 Cor. 12:22-24, which reminds us that “the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and the parts we consider less honorable, we treat with greater honor”?

Adult-Ed
Lenten Program on Salvation
“Why Did Jesus Die?”

Our Lenten practices often focus on sacrificing a bit of life’s pleasures and preparing for Easter. We often fail to consider how Jesus’ death was and is a miraculous act of love in and of itself. Our three-week study will explore how and why the how crucifixion and death of Jesus provides a model of selfless love and what it means to triumph over death. We will use art, history, and as always our Biblical text to explore the meaning of Good Friday.

Class will begin March 31st and will include April 7th and April 14th. We will meet in South Hall at 9:30 am. Tom Zych will lead class. All are welcome!

Adult-Ed along with Justice and Mission will also lead a group discussion on April 28th at 9:30 am that will go over the experience of the Lenten Season.
